

Please join us...

as we Remember and Celebrate the Spirit of
Martin Luther King Jr.,

a Drum Major for Peace & Justice, on the 40th anniversary of his assassination

DRUM MAJOR FOR PEACE & JUSTICE

Noon-1:00 pm
Friday, April 4
Old Union Courtyard,
Stanford University Campus

Featuring:

- John-Carlos Perea, Grammy Award winning drummer, leading the Stanford IDA Singers pow-wow drum group
- Gamo Da Paz, master of Afro-Brazilian rhythms and folk music
- Stanford Mariachi Band
- Eddie Marks of Stanford Taiko
- Spoken word artist Victoria Asbury
- Ann Licater, Native American & World Flutist
- Â Paradiso, Didjeridoo Artist
- Kathleen Farrell, Tibetan Bowl Performance Artist
- Suellen Primost, Cellist
- Destiny, Harpist from the Hood

Sponsored by The Martin Luther King, Jr. Research & Education Institute, Office for Religious Life, Center for Comparative Studies in Race & Ethnicity, African and African-American Studies, Black Community Services Center, and Native American Cultural Center

Martin Luther King, Jr., Research & Education Institute, 466 Via Ortega, Cypress Hall D, Stanford CA 94305, 650-723-2092, www.kinginstitute.info